Report of Principal and School Improvement Council

Murray-LaSainé Elementary School, identified by the State Department as having a HUG (historically underachieving group), received an absolute rating of AVERAGE on the 2008-2009 School Report Card first time in more than 4 years. The growth rating remained at Good for the 2nd year in a row, and we met AYP. We also received the Palmetto Silver Award for academic achievement and improvement for four consecutive years and for Closing the Achievement Gap 2 years in a row. Our success is the result of focusing on three specific areas: Students, Parents, and Community.

Students benefit from reduced class sizes and teachers who implement the South Carolina Curriculum Standards. The implementation of Everyday Math, the Voyager reading program, and consistent use of MAP data has driven instruction for all students. Our CORE team works in conjunction with teachers to assist students in need of academic or behavioral concerns. Our Kaleidoscope program received the Palmetto Mentoring Grant and provides after-school programs for students.

Parental involvement is a necessary element in the success of our school. Family Reading and Math Nights, PTA meetings, and monthly newsletters are used to communicate with parents on a regular basis. Muffins with Moms, Grits with Grands, and Donuts with Dads have played an important role in bringing parents into our school. The PTA/SIC/Title I Board continues to work for parental involvement and coordination.

Community Liaisons include Chick-Fil-A, The Parks Recreation Center, St. James Episcopal Church, James Island Baptist Church, Piggly Wiggly, Walmart, and Trident United Way. All of these help us to "provide excellence...one student at a time." Without this community involvement, our students and teachers would not have the needed support and validation to consistently strive to achieve our goal of educating life-long learners.
